I. Extension of Time to File

If Form 199 cannot be filed by the 15th day of the 5th month after the accounting period ends, the exempt organization has an additional six months to file without filing a written request for extension. However, an organization that is not in good standing or suspended on the original due date of the return will not be given an extension of time to file. For more information, get form FTB 3539, Payment for Automatic Extension for Corporations and Exempt Organizations.

If the return is not filed and/or the filing fee is not paid by the extended due date, penalties, additional fees, and interest may be imposed as explained in General Information J, Penalties.

J. Penalties

Failure to File a Timely Return — An organization that fails to file the return on or before the original due date, or extended due date, is assessed a penalty of $5 for each month, or part of the month, the return is late. If the return is not filed by the extended due date, the automatic extension will not apply. The penalty may not exceed $40.

Failure to Furnish Information — In the case of a private foundation, the FTB may make a written demand that a delinquent return or foundation report be filed within a reasonable amount of time after mailing a demand notice. The person who fails to file after such demand is subject to a penalty of $5 for each month, or part of the month, (not to exceed $25) after the period expires.

Walver — The law provides the FTB with the authority to waive the above penalties and late payment fee if it is shown that the failure was due to reasonable cause and not due to willful neglect.

Suspension/Revocation – The corporate rights, powers, and privileges may be suspended, or the exemption from tax may be revoked, for failure to file a return or pay the filing fee, penalties, or interest.

Interest – Interest accrues on the delinquent penalty from the original due date of the return until the penalty is paid. Get FTB Pub. 1138, Business Entity Refund/Billing Information, for more information.

K. California Use Tax

The use tax has been in effect in California since July 1, 1935. It applies to purchases of property from out of state sellers and is similar to the sales tax paid on purchases made in California. If the exempt organization has not already paid all use tax due to the California Department of Tax and Fee Administration, it may be able to report and pay the use tax due on its state income tax return. However, organizations required to hold a California seller's permit or to otherwise register with the California Department of Tax and Fee Administration for sales and use tax purposes may not report use tax on their state income tax return. See the information below and the instructions for Part I, line 12, of the income tax return.

In general, exempt organizations must pay California use tax on purchases of merchandise for use in California, made from out of state sellers, for example, by telephone, online, by mail, or in person.

Exempt organizations must pay California use tax on taxable items if:

- · The seller does not collect California sales or use tax, and
- The organization uses, gives away, stores, or consumes the item in California.

Example: The exempt organization purchases a conference table from a company in North Carolina. The company ships the table from North Carolina to the organization's address in California for the organization's use and does not charge California sales or use tax. The organization owes use tax on the purchase.

However, not all purchases require the exempt organization to pay use tax. For example, the organization would include purchases of office equipment, but not purchases of food products or prescription medicine. For more information on nontexable and exempt purchases, you may refer to Publication 61, Sales and Use Taxes: Exemptions and Exclusions, on the California Department of Tax and Fee Administration's website at cdtfa.ca.gov 13.

For more information about California use tax, please refer to the California Department of Tax and Fee Administration's website at cdtfa.ca.gov and type "Find Information About Use Tax" in the search bar.

Complete the Use Tax Worksheet14 to calculate the amount due.

Extensions to File – If the exempt organization requests an extension to file the tax return, wait until the exempt organization files the return to report the purchases subject to use tax and to make the use tax payment.

Interest, Penalties, and Fees – Failure to timely report and pay the use tax due may result in the assessment of interest, penalties, and fees.

Application of Payments – The application of payments and credits for use tax reported on an income tax return has changed. Beginning with taxable years starting on or after January 1, 2015, payments and credits will be applied first to the use tax liability, instead of income tax liabilities, penalties, and interest.

Changes In Use Tax Reported – Do not file an Amended California Exempt Organization Annual Information Return to revise the use tax previously reported. If the exempt organization has changes to the amount of use tax previously reported on the original tax return, contact the California Department of Tax and Fee Administration.

For assistance, go to the California Department of Tax and Fee Administration's website at cdtfa.ca.gov¹³ or call their Customer Service Center at 800-400-7115 (CRS:711) (for hearing and speech disabilities). For California income tax information, contact the FTB at fttb.ca.gov⁷.

L. Group Filing

A central, parent, or like organization can file a group return for two or more local organizations that:

- Are tax-exempt under a group exemption letter that is still in effect or obtained tax-exempt status on their own.
- Are affiliated with the central organization at the time its annual accounting period ends.
- Are subject to the central organization's general supervision or control.
- Have the same accounting period as the central organization.
- Do not have unrelated trade or business income in excess of $1,000.

Every year, each local organization must authorize the central organization in writing to include it in the group return and must declare, under penalty of perjury, that the authorization and the information it submits to be included in the group return are true and complete.

If the central organization prepares a group return for its subordinates/affiliates, check the "Yes" box in Question G, and attach a roster. The roster must include for each subordinate:

- Legal name
- Federal employer identification number (FEIN)
- Entity ID number if known
- Mailing address

All subordinates/affiliates must have tax-exempt status before being included in a group return. A separate form FTB 3500, or form FTB 3500A, Submission of Exemption Request, can be filled with the FTB to request tax-exempt status for all subordinates. Otherwise, subordinates must file form FTB 3500 and be granted tax-exempt status before it can be included in the group return. The parent organization's income cannot be included in the group return. The parent organization must file a separate Form 199 to report their income.

M. Subordinate/Affiliate Filing Return

If the return is being filed by an organization that is covered by their parent's group exemption, check the "Yes" box in Question H and give the name of the parent organization.

Subordinate units with unrelated trade or business income in excess of $1,000 cannot be included in a group filing return.
